

Kevin in Haiti for a mission trip representing our office.

June 2017

Hey All,

Pics of me at Sans-Souci Palace ruins, also on horseback headed to Citadelle Laferriere Henry Christophe. Clinic pics of me with Haitian locals Dr. Charles Lafantant (Dentist) and Eddie Joseph my driver/ interpreter/ assistant and tour guide. The clinic pics are from our makeshift clinic in a church in Quartier Morin, Haiti. I feel so blessed to be here, only wishing I could do more. It is unfortunate that not much has changed here as far as the unsanitary living conditions for the Haitian people. I am still overwhelmed by the strength of the people here to overcome such harsh conditions.

God Bless, Kevin
